

New York, Dec 16, 02

This is not a simple introduction or a thank you note to Wafin.com for the outstanding mission this Website is accomplishing in favor of the Moroccan-American community. It is rather a note of appreciation for its will of informing, educating and establishing a direct dialogue of understanding between the two cultures.

While we understand the need to establish a bridge between people of different social, economic and religious backgrounds, Wafin.com has taken the lead in providing the necessary interaction tools and the means of expression for everyone concerned with exchanging their enriching views and opinions.

My special thanks also go to everyone working to reinforce the already excellent historical relations existing between our two friendly countries and contribute to further consolidate our efforts for joint future projects.
